CERTIFICATE OF TEACHING IN HIGHER EDUCATION

The Certificate program is a thorough preparation in teaching and learning for doctoral students. Combining scholarship, applied practice, and innovation, it is 6-8 US credits in length (12-16 ECTS). The program enables participants to design effective courses and sessions in the contexts of their disciplinary and institutional curricula; to master techniques for student-centered teaching and for facilitating student learning; and to effectively assess their students' learning. The program enables participants to use technology in support of teaching and learning; to promote diversity, equity, and inclusion in courses; and to foster lifelong professional development by cultivating scholarly-informed and reflective habits.

Date of program completion:
